

El Paso Goes On Wagon; Prices up On Soft Drinks

Local milk drink stand proprietors say that raising the price of soft drinks 100 percent, or charging 10 cents for the former 2-cent drink, has not helped business. Fewer persons, they say, are drinking the 10-cent drinks than did the 2-cent drinks, so they are going to the few places in El Paso which did not boost their prices.

Coke and syrup only went up 25 cents on the gallon, they say, from $1.75 to $2.00 a gallon, but all 5-cent drinks went up 100 percent, effective February 1. Consequently there has been less drinking or perhaps less patronizing of the places, which increased their prices.

Hogwallow Locals

THE wife of the deputy constable could not do the regular weekly washing yesterday as the deputy had placed the wash kettle over a mysterious tank in the lane.

Jefferson Putlock has caught a lot of spiders and set them to work in his cellar to fool the officers or anybody else wanting a drink.

The man that runs the moving picture machine at the Tickville opera house every Saturday night has been the recipient of much complaint recently, and the straw that broke the camel's back fell Saturday night when he ran a film through and had it end without the happy young couple kissing each other at the conclusion. He gave as his excuse that something got the matter with the machine.

Beauty Chats By Edna Kent Forbes

Look Yourself Over.

MANY times before I have advised women to be vain about their appearance and, above all, to stand frequently before long mirrors, especially when dressing, for in that way only can they be certain that every little detail of their appearance is correct.

I have heard old women rebuke children and young girls for stealing glances of themselves in mirrors and I know one really very intelligent old woman who boasts that she brought up her daughters in rooms destitute of looking glasses. She said she didn't want them to be vain.

But did she ever think that they could not see how their skirts hung in back and therefore, in the natural course of events, would come to care for their dress? I never saw those girls after they grew up, but I'm sure of this—either they have been spoiled by mirrors, or, if you can possibly afford it, have at least one full length mirror in your home. You can get your front and back view by standing before it, and a back view by holding a little handglass before you as you turn about in front of the large mirror.

Those so-called "vain dressers" are very good that way. They have one long and often two side short mirrors that hang on the wall, and they can see their front and back views without the tediousness of turning around for them.

A Constant Reader.—A loose knot of hair very high on the back of the head, with a couple of soft little curls hanging down, would be attractive and easy to arrange if your hair is naturally very curly. You are young for a very high heel; try moderate Cuban heels for a few years yet.

Bedtime Stories For The Little Ones

UNCLE WIGGILY AND SAMMIE'S SNOW HOUSE.

By HOWARD D. GARIS

"COME on, boys! Come on! Everybody pile up a lot of snow and we'll make a big one!"

Sammy Littlehead, the boy rabbit, was hopping around in his yard with a snow shovel over his shoulder.

Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, the squirrels, were skipping here and there with their red mittens on, piling up snowballs in round heaps. Jackie and Fattie Bow Wow, the puppy dogs, ran here and there, barking and slipping the snow all around.

"Everybody's got to help!" cried Sammy.

"What are you going to make a snow man?" asked Uncle Wiggily, the rabbit gentleman, as he hopped along.

"No, we're going to make a snow house out of snow, and you may come in, if you like."

"That is very kind of you, Sammie," spoke the bunny gentleman. "But I would like, best of all, to help you make the play house."

"Oh, yes, let Uncle Wiggily help us," cried Sammie and Billie and Jackie and Fattie.

"Oh, yes, let Uncle Wiggily help us," cried Sammie and Billie and Jackie and Fattie.

"Oh, yes, let Uncle Wiggily help us," cried Sammie and Billie and Jackie and Fattie.
